DEVELOPMENT ADVICE

HELPING ORGANISATIONS GROW

BBWCVS provide a range of free information and development services to help Voluntary & Community organisations.

These services include:

- ◆ Help with setting up a new voluntary or community group. Got a great idea but not sure what to do next? Advice on 'Getting Started', legal structures, governance and funding.
- ◆ Information, Advice and Support on organisational issues for new and existing groups: including charity/company registration, project planning, funding advice, financial management, policies and good practice. Information is available on our web site, by phone, e-mail or face-to-face.
- ◆ Regular information updates to help you keep up with what's going on for the voluntary and community sector both locally and nationally.
- ◆ Support and training for management committees: tailored training sessions to help your committee tackle a specific issue and consultancy to develop larger projects.

VOLUNTARY SECTOR FORUM

The Voluntary Sector Forum (VSF) helps to promote two way communication so that the CVS is consulted and contributes to discussions and decision making.

The Forum meets four times a year and also organises a bi-annual Conference. Representation from the following forums hold networking sessions at each VSF meeting.

- ◆ Children, Young People & Families Forum
- ◆ Minorities Forum
- ◆ Health & Social Care Forum
- ◆ Arts & Social Care Forum
