

Voluntary Sector Training

A registered charity providing training exclusively to the voluntary sector in Essex

Why Use VST for your Training Needs?

We appreciate that many organisations are currently trimming back their training budgets and choosing their training providers very carefully to get best value for their money. We think we are uniquely placed to help you train your people and equip them with the skills they need to do their jobs well in these challenging times.

We offer you:

- A wide range of open courses designed for the voluntary sector
- Trainers who have experience of working for the sector and therefore understand the problems it faces
- Good value for money
- Courses delivered centrally to minimise travel costs for delegates or at a range of venues in Essex depending on local need
- Tailored training - we have a large network of trainers and extensive knowledge of the sector, so we can find the right trainer for the right topic at the right price for you.

Are you a local community group that needs some training to get up and running?

If so, we may be able to help by offering some FREE training in marketing skills, presentations, the legal side of setting yourself up and similar topics.

Conditions do apply, but just ask us for details and we will see what we can do to help you!
Tel: 01371 876747

And lastly access to funded training.....as VST works in partnership with others in the voluntary sector, it is uniquely placed to access funding for FREE or heavily subsidised training.....look at this training opportunity and get in touch for more details!
